THE ACCLYPTIC APPROACH

It starts with what matters to you.

We help people stay at home among familiar belongings, routines and relationships. Support is shaped around the person - not the other way around.

Our team makes time to listen, understand and provide care at a pace that feels comfortable.

1 WE SEE

Your strengths, home, routines, relationships and goals.

2 WE LISTEN

Your preferences, priorities and the pace that feels right.

3 WE CARE

Patient, respectful support with warmth and attention to detail.

The goal is not simply to complete a task.

It is to protect independence, comfort and the moments that make home feel like home.

First, we see the whole person

Seen. Understood. Respected.

ONE TEAM, MANY SERVICES

A life supported, not interrupted.

A coordinated range of services can make everyday life simpler and reduce the need to manage several different providers.

● Personal care

Respectful help with dressing, showering, grooming and everyday personal routines.

● Domestic assistance

Household help that keeps your home clean, comfortable and welcoming.

● Nursing care

Clinical observations, treatments and care coordination.

● Meals and shopping

Planning, shopping and familiar meal preparation for easier days at home

● Respite support

Flexible support that gives family and informal carers time to rest and recharge.

YOU
YOUR ROUTINES
YOUR GOALS

Home and garden

Property maintenance, gardening and practical help to keep your home safe and cared for.

● Transport

Reliable assistance to appointments, shopping, social activities and community destinations.

● Social support

Companionship, hobbies, outings and meaningful social connection.

Accllyptic Care and Community brings practical assistance, personal care, health support and community connection together under one coordinated service. Our purpose is simple: to help people feel comfortable, confident and supported in the place they call home.

PERSONAL AND CLINICAL CARE

Care that brings confidence.

Care delivered at your pace, with clear communication and time to feel comfortable

Skilled support provided with patience tailored to the individual, their care plan and the level of assistance they need.

Support may include

- Personal hygiene and dressing
- Medication reminders
- Health Observations
- Mobility and Comfort
- Treatment Support
- Care Documentation

Personal and clinical support at home

Our care team can work alongside families, health professionals and existing care plans.

1 Personal Care

Patient support with showering, dressing, grooming, toileting, mobility and daily personal routines.

2 Nursing Care

Professional in-home nursing, monitoring, wound care, medication assistance, treatments, documentation and coordination in line with clinical directions.

3 Respite and Carer Relief

Dependable care that gives family and carers time to rest, attend appointments and other priorities or recharge.

4 Allied Health Coordination

Help connect with allied health professionals and follow agreed therapy or support strategies.

From everyday personal care to nursing and respite, services are tailored to the individual, their care plan and the level of assistance they need.

The right care makes each day feel more manageable.

HOME AND EVERYDAY SUPPORT

Practical help that keeps home feeling like home.

Good support should make life feel easier - not take it over. We work with your routines and preferences so assistance feels natural, respectful and genuinely useful.

Domestic Assistance

Garden and outdoor interests

Meals and familiar routines

Domestic assistance

Cleaning, laundry, linen and household priorities.

Meal preparation

Planning, shopping and preparing familiar meals.

Property maintenance

Minor jobs, safety checks and practical upkeep.

Transport & errands

Appointments, shopping and everyday outings.

Garden maintenance

Mowing, weeding, pruning and general garden care.

Support is not only about tasks.

We work around personal preferences, familiar routines and household priorities with practical support that respects the way each person likes to live.

"With the everyday tasks supported, there is more time for what you enjoy."

Stay connected to what matters.

Companionship, confidence, belonging and meaningful activities are important parts of staying well at home

Companionship

Conversation and time together. Companionship at home and support to stay socially active.

Outings

Transport and practical assistance. Outings and shared experiences designed around interests and enjoyment.

Interests

Help to keep doing what you enjoy. One-to-one activities, group workshops and community participation.

Social Events

Confidence to stay involved. More confidence. More connection. More good days.

Support is not only about tasks. It is also about companionship, confidence, belonging and keeping meaningful parts of the day within reach. Support can be as simple as sharing a cup of tea, attending an appointment, enjoying a hobby or staying involved with family and community.

The best support makes room for connection, laughter and everyday joy.

ONE COORDINATED TEAM

Getting started is simpler than you may think.

Our staff will guide you through the sign-up process, answer questions and organise the next steps. Easy.

1

Talk with us

No complicated language. No one-size-fits-all plan. Just a clear conversation about what you need and how we can help.

2

Plan together

We explain options, confirm your needs and assist with the paperwork then carefully formulate a service plan around your routine and goals.

3

Meet your team

Support is delivered by people who understand the plan and respect your preferences.

Quick to start. Easy to understand. Supported all the way.
